

Bible passage:

Date:

Readers:

A light bulb: This should be something that ‘shines’ from the passage—whatever impacts most, or draws attention.

A question mark: Anything that is difficult to understand in the text, or a question the reader would like to ask the writer of the passage or the Lord.

An arrow: A personal application for the reader's life. Name something you think the Spirit is telling you to do in obedience to this Bible text.

The Cross: A reason to love Jesus/his cross more, or a glimpse of his glory, or a glimpse of God's glory.

Talking bubble: Write down the name of a friend or relative who would benefit from them sharing what they learned from the study. Their aim is then to talk to that person before the next meeting.
